COURSE NAME California Management and Supervision Continuing Education Course
BRIEF COURSE DESCRIPTION

A real estate professional in the State of California who is looking to renew their license will find in this course three hours of continuing education content. This course talks about the following topics: 1) Management of Real Estate Professionals - This topic covers the general issues associated with supervising and managing other people. 2) Real Estate Offices - This course discusses real estate brokerage offices and some of the policies that need to be implemented to keep them operating efficiently and effectively.

If the student fails their first attempt at an exam, they are allowed one more attempt, with entirely different questions than the first attempt. If they fail the second attempt, they cannot take the exam again, and must start from the beginning of the course and review the material again.

Examination Regulatory Notes

- Participants taking a correspondence offering or package of offerings shall be limited to completion of final examinations for a maximum of fifteen (15) credit hours during any one 24-hour period. A participant shall not be granted access to additional segments of the final examination for offerings or a package of offerings that exceed fifteen (15) credit hours until the appropriate 24-hour period has elapsed.
- An offering may include a provision for one retaking a different final examination by a participant who failed the original examination provided the questions in the re-examination are different questions than those contained in the original examination. A participant who fails the re-examination cannot receive credit for the course. Such a participant is not barred from enrolling and completing the same course, but must retake the course and pass the final examination with a score of 70% or better to receive credit.
- Questions used in a final examination shall not duplicate any more than 10% of questions used in any other quiz or examination utilized during the presentation of the course.
- Final examinations for CE courses consisting only of multiple choice, true/false and/or fill-in the blank questions shall be limited to a maximum of 10% true/false questions.
- Time calculations for a final examination consisting of multiple choice, true/false and/or fill-in the blank questions should be allowed a maximum amount of one (1) minute per question. The minimum number of questions for a continuing education final examination consisting only of multiple choice, true/false and/or fill-in the blank questions is:
